DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO THE COURT'S
ORDER DATED FEBRUARY 2, 2007

Come now the Defendants, in the above styled-cause, by and through undersigned counsel, and respond to the Court's Order dated February 2, 2007. After a review of the compliant and an investigation of the claims, the Defendant pray this Honorable Court to accept this response in lieu of a special report. The Defendants believe that this position is supported as follows:

1. First and foremost, the majority of the Plaintiff's claims are for injunctive relief. The Plaintiff was released from ADOC custody on February 16, 2007. (See Exhibit "A" attached). The Plaintiff has not notified the Court or the Defendants of his new address. The only address that the Defendants have is an emergency contact address of 713 James Lee Road, Ft. Walton, FL 32547. (See Exhibit "A" attached). Regardless, due to the inmate's release, the issue of injunctive relief is moot.

2. Secondly, as to the issue of access to the courts and damages possibly associated with a conditions case, the Plaintiff has not set the necessary elements to establish a prima facie case. Inmates have access to legal materials at the Montgomery Pre-Release Center. The Defendants have no way of knowing whether the Plaintiff is going to pursue this action or not.

3. Thirdly, the Defendants are entitled to absolute immunity in their official capacity and qualified immunity in their individual capacity as to any claims that the Plaintiff may have, assuming that his complaint establishes the proper elements.

4. The Defendants reserve the right to submit a special report, should this Court deem it necessary and further reserve the right to request a trial by jury after the decision of this Honorable Court as to the issues presented.

Respectfully submitted,

Kim T. Thomas (THO015)
General Counsel
Assistant Attorney General
